

Scenario No. 4. WMT Day . Examination Patrols at school. Oral examinations.

Duration: 5-6 hours.

Place: school hall.

Participants: school students, school workers, guests, Media.

Who conduct examinations: Examination Patrols, Local Coordinator.

Number of Examination Patrols: determined by a teacher.

Examination form: oral answers (on examination sheets).

To prepare:

No.	Props	Templates for print
1.	Examination sheets – one sheet per student.	Organizers Zone
2.	Pens – one pen per Commission.
3.	Basket – for drawing.
4.	Watch or stopwatch – one watch/stopwatch per Commission.
5.	MT Examiners IDs – for the Examination Commission (3 people).	Organizers Zone
6.	MT EXPERT cards – for those, who will pass the examination.	Organizers Zone
7.	Tables of multiplication table - to check whether the answers are correct.

Program:

No.	Subject	Time	Implementation
1.	Opening ceremony.	8.00-8.15	Headteacher announces: World Multiplication Table Day starts today . Coordinator describes purposes of the event.
2.	Examinations.	8.20-13.00	Examination Patrols have examination sheets in a basket. They walk around the school during the break and conduct exams for those who are willing to answer. 3.1. Examinee gets examination sheet from the basket.            3.2. Examiner announces: START! and turns on the stopwatch.            3.3. Examinee reads examples from the sheet and gives oral answer on each example.            3.4. Examination Patrol supervises exams:            - Passed examination – when all given answers within 3 minutes are correct.            - Not passed examination – when at least one given answer within 3 minutes is incorrect.            3.5. Each person, who passed an exam receives the MT EXPERT title. Examination Patrol gives successful examinee high five or a dap.            3.6. Not passed examination can be repeated after an 1 hour.
3.	Summary of the event.	14.00	Coordinator describes summary of the event on the school board: number of examinees, people, who passed an examination.