

Examination Patrols at school

Oral examinations

scenario N°

4

Duration: 5–6 hours.Place: school hall.Participants: school students, school workers, guests, media.Who conduct examinations: Examination Patrols, Local Coordinator.Number of Examination Patrols: determined by a teacher.Examination form: oral answers (on examination sheets).

Props

1. Examination sheets* – one sheet per student
2. Pens – one pen per Patrol
3. Basket – for drawing
4. Watch or stopwatch – one watch/stopwatch per Patrol
5. MT Examiners IDs* – for the Examination Patrol (3 people)
6. MT EXPERT cards* – for those, who will pass the examination
7. Tables of multiplication table – to check whether the answers are correct

* available for download - after logging-in: wmtday.org

Program

8.00– 8.15	Opening ceremony	Headteacher announces: World Multiplication Table Day starts today. Coordinator describes purposes of the event.
8.20– 13.00	Examinations	Examination Patrols have examination sheets in a basket. They walk around the school during the break and conduct exams for those who are willing to answer. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Examinee gets examination sheet from the basket.</li> <li>2. Examiner announces: START! and turns on the stopwatch.</li> <li>3. Examinee reads examples from the sheet and gives oral answer on each example.</li> <li>4. Examination Patrol supervises exams:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Passed examination – when all given answers within 3 minutes are correct.</li> <li>– Not passed examination – when at least one given answer within 3 minutes is incorrect.</li> </ul> </li> <li>5. Each person, who passed an exam receives the MT EXPERT title. Examination Commission gives successful examinee high five or a dap.</li> <li>6. Not passed examination can be repeated after an 1 hour.</li> </ol>
14.00	Summary of the event	Coordinator describes summary of the event on the school board: number of examinees, people, who passed an examination.